2007 Cabernet Sauvignon – Stagecoach Vineyard

Tasting Notes: Our flagship wine, our 2007 offering is wonderfully balanced with good acidity and structure while remaining luscious and velvety in the mouth. This vineyard consistently produces wines of the highest quality and the 2007 vintage showcases the best characteristics it has to offer. Cherry, cassis and plum notes combine with a thread of mocha in the mid-palate. The dark fruit nose is layered with a whiff of crème brulee. This is a stunning wine and while approachable in its youth will continue to gain complexity with bottle aging.

Vineyard: Stagecoach vineyard is located on the eastern slopes of Napa Valley on Pritchard Hill and is owned by the Krupp family. We utilize minimal intervention in our winemaking process to ensure the characteristics of the vineyard are expressed in our finished wines.

Alcohol: 14.8%

Bottling: July 21, 2009

Winemaker: Kian Tavakoli
